3-4 Mayıs 2018 İstanbul - TÜRKİYE / 3-4 May 2018 Istanbul - TURKEY

Dear Participants of the Food Safety Congress,

We already started our intensive work program for the 6th Food Safety Congress which will be held between the dates 3-4 May 2018. This time at a different location, with a different organization agency and with some different contents.

We are growing day by day with the support of 9 partners and 18 supporting institutions including the Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Livestock and also International Association for Food Protection (IFAFP) who is supporting us since our first congress.

The Food Safety Congress which is the only congress in our country and region that is solely based on food safety, strengthens its mission by bringing all partners and supporter institutions in regards to food safety together with all related stakeholders and professions.

Keeping in mind the fact that, food safety has a strategic importance on the protection of consumer, on the development of the agro-food sector and on the regional economy; sector representatives, Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Livestock, universities, professional organizations and non-governmental organizations will come together to share their knowledge and experiences at the Congress with foreign and/or national experts. One of the main objectives of this Congress is to discuss all food safety related issues and find a mutual platform to transform all this information into good practices.

During the 6th Food Safety Congress we are programming different sessions, including good practices in the sector, new trend topics, opportunities, new emerging risks and new food technologies from our country and abroad that will broaden our vision.

We will be very glad to welcome you in our congress which is the meeting point for Food Safety in the region.

Hope to meet you at Grand Cevahir Hotel Convention Center on 3-4 May 2018.

Best Regards,

Samim Saner

President.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS

Abstract Submissions sent to 6th Food Safety Congress will only be accepted via the electronic system (abstractagent) in Congress' web site. The candidates must first sign into the system then follow the steps and send their submissions. After your submission is successfully received you will receive an e-mail from the system. Only submissions that are complete and correctly sent will be evaluated by the commission, any incomplete submission will be directly deleted from the system. If you didn't receive an e-mail your submission might not have been successfully received. Please check.

Latest date of sending of the abstracts is 5 February 2018, any abstract sent after this date will not be evaluated. Abstract submissions can be made in two ways, poster or oral. The Scientific Committee has the right to change the presentation form within consideration of these preferences. Presentations are limited to 20 minutes and it is important for you to follow the indicated rules.

Evaluation and Publishing the Abstracts

The abstracts will be evaluated by at least 2 (two) members from the Scientific Committee in a way that the applicant's identity will not be visible, the results of the evaluation, acceptance or rejection letters and the form of presentation (oral/poster) will be given to the applicants at least by 19 February 2018.

In order to complete the registration process, the registration form in the website must be filled in sent and finally the registration fee must be deposited to the indicated bank account. For detailed information on registration please browse our site's "Registration and Accommodation" section. Participants whose submissions were accepted and who wants to benefit from early registration discount must complete their registrations until 01 March 2018, the last date for early registration. A digital version of all abstracts will be given to each participant and also will be electronically published on the Congress' web site. After all presentations have been completed at the end of the congress, submission owners whose full version of their submissions were found worthy of publishing will be requested to submit their full articles and will be published in congress book along with the speeches of invited speakers.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSIONS

Principles of Preparing an Abstract Submission

Abstracts submissions must be directly related to congress' topics and submission will be made over an electronic system in Turkish and English languages.
